COLLECTIVE WORSHIP	HEADTEACHER'S AWARDS
WISE WORDS This week in Worship we looked at our Journey to Success. We talked about the journey helping us to know how to be the very best we can be. We looked at the section that says 'We face new challenges and learn from our mistakes'. We discussed the importance of accepting when we have got something wrong, learning from it and doing better next time. We then looked at Proverb 3:27 'Whenever you are able, do good to people who need help'. We looked at where we could do this in school. Finally we looked at the story that Jesus told of The Good Samaritan and linked this to Proverb 3:27. In Celebration Worship we celebrated children who had worked to be the very best that they could be in all aspects of school life.	CONGRATULATIONS TO: Bella M in Rowling for always trying her best in all of her learning, challenging herself and demonstrating our school values in everything she does! Seyon S in Curie for consistently showing positive learning behaviours and striving to be the best he can be in all aspects of the school day. Riley W in Parks for being a kind and helpful person within Parks class. He is a great role model to all. Keep going! Mollie B in Shackleton for always being a brilliant role model to others. She demonstrates our school values in everything that she does. You are a superstar!
