HEADTEACHER'S AWARDS

Congratulations to:

Joshua S in Rowling for always having a caring and conscientious attitude and being a positive member of our school community.

Elliot S in Hawking for showing incredible resilience by asking for help, adapting in tricky situations and courageously facing challenges. Well done, Elliot!

Samir HC in Mandela for always striving to be the best he can be and showing courage, respect and resilience in class this week.

Riley B in Attenborough for always working hard to demonstrate our school values and be a good role model. He is supportive and a good friend to all. What a superstar!

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

This week in Collective Worship we continued the story of Moses and learnt about crossing the Red Sea and how the people felt that God was keeping them safe. We then explored who keeps us safe and gave thanks for them.

On Tuesday and Wednesday we celebrated Harvest. The children sang a Harvest song and learnt about what Harvest means and why we give donations of food.

Thank you to everyone who sent in food, we had a lovely display which will now go to the Grub Hub.
